Serious Amy Lane but not crazy angsty Amy Lane, this is pretty close to the perfect story for me. Patrick is a wealthy young man, spoiled materially but starved of affection. The book starts with him being dumped in a spectacular fashion and follows him as he gains a little self-confidence and a whole lot of self-respect.

Clear Water is a well written engaging story about two guys: Patrick and 'Whiskey' (Wes). Two vastly different guys with different backgrounds, expectations, and how they handle life. Patrick takes Rinalin to keep his ADHD under control. He's young and lacks confidence. Whiskey is a lettered researcher, older, and gruff.
