The Heart of the Matter by Graham Greene - Goodreads

Stripped down to the religious elements of this film, "The Heart of the Matter" doesn't sound like much. But it has a very high resonance if you're Catholic, suicide is the unforgivable sin, you can't go to communion unless you've been to confession, etc. Trevor Howard gives a very profound performance as a man who has lost everything except his religion and who describes hell as eternal wanting.
