Wars of the Roses - Wikipedia

The Wars of the Roses were a series of dynastic struggles set against a backdrop of extreme political upheaval and perpetrated by pretty much every character in William Shakespeare's historical plays. The exact time period is a matter of debate, since the 'Wars of the Roses' were not exactly measurable wars but rather a 19th century description of a period in England characterized by political strife and a feuding aristocracy.

The Wars of the Roses by Elizabeth Hallam

The Wars of the Roses started in earnest around 1450, and England was in a state of civil war much of the time until 1485 when Henry Tudor defeated Richard III in battle and became Henry VII. Yes, the main competing royal houses were those of Lancaster, supporters of Henry VI and his family and associates, and the Dukes of York who also claimed royal ancestry and were frustrated over Henry VI.
